

Black and White

The other day my life changed
Will you still remain
Every part of you was made for me
All for me

Running wild among the streets tonight
Looking for an end that ain't in sight
Will our hearts withstand another blow
I dont know

This love is more than just a stepping stone
It's stronger than the loves I've ever known
Looking back on everything we've said and done
It's never been a choice to run

Trying to get my feet back on the ground
And find my sound
When the world keeps on pushing down
Gotta fight the stirring in my soul
I think I'll go
Away from here

Breathing in and out through all the love and pain
Gotta make it through this rain
Life can hit us hard with all its might
But it's never a reason to let stop the going fight

Separate your mind
See you what you can find
Don't push this away
Focus on today

Separate your mind
See you what you can find
Don't push this away
Focus on today
