

My Song

Sometimes I fear what's inside of me
Can the world handle who I am
It takes a lot to be just who I wanna to be
I'm not going to hide my authenticity

So I step outside and and throw away my pain
And pave my path in the pouring rain
The storm is trying to knock me on my knees
And the wind is blowing hell through the trees

This is my song and I'm gunna sing it
Gotta stand my ground if I wanna be seen
No shame no fear, I was meant to be here (after all these years)
I can finally find my way
This world is mine today

You're looking in the mirror at night
And wonder if they're gunna see what they like
Strip down the judgment and hate
And try to love yourself cuz you're alive today
It doesn't matter what the people will say
Because it's you-you gotta live with at the end of the day Yeah It's my life I'm gunna do what I like and show the world out there that you can get this high

This is my song and I'm gunna sing it
Gotta stand my ground if I wanna be seen
No shame no fear, I was meant to be here (after all these years)
I can finally find my way
This world is mine today

This is my song and I'm gunna sing it
Gotta stand my ground if I wanna be my own
No shame no fear, I was meant to be here (after all these years)
I can finally find my way
